

What ever happened to the will of the people? What about MY rights? The vast majority of New Jerseyans (not to mention Americans) do not want their lives to be continuously interrupted by unsolicited phone calls. People are not being forced to sign up for the Do Not Call list. If someone wants to receive telemarketing calls, they can do so. Leave the states alone to follow the will of their people.